Sheldonville, MA – CJ West launches his “Who Wants to be a Hero?” tour to introduce Gretchen Greene, the 3rd Randy Black novel.

Can you turn around a speeding car without slowing or leaving your lane? Can you handle a handgun? Pick out a killer wine? Play a tight game of Texas Hold ‘em?

Randy Black does these things and you can, too. The “Who Wants To Be A Hero?” tour will start you on your way.

Learn from the experts:

Advanced Driving & Security, Inc., North Kingstown, RI, teaches security drivers and executive protection teams. ADSI & CJ will team up for a demonstration of advanced driving techniques. Fans are invited to drive the closed course.

National Shooting Sports Foundation, Newton CT, was formed to promote, protect, and preserve the shooting sports. Join CJ and certified instructors for the First Shots Program. This day long program will teach firearms safety and allow participants to fire a rifle, shotgun, and a handgun.

Westport Rivers Winery, Westport, MA, site of Sin & Vengeance and potential location for Sin & Vengeance the movie, will host a winery tour and tasting. CJ will highlight events from his novel Sin & Vengeance and discuss the movie project.

CJ will give introductory Texas Hold ‘em poker lessons in book stores across New England. Fans are invited to sit down, learn, and play right in the store.
